

Cease and Desist

DEFENDING THE REPUBLIC
SEP 09, 2024 · PAID

Share

Sept 09, 2024

Dear Patriot,

On this Monday before the Great Debate, we dig into...

- Trump's cease and desist notice to cheating Democrats.
- Texas tries to stop another way the Democrats cheat.
- the sad Cheney family.
- the DOJ spokesman who spills the beans.
- how the Dems rearrange the numbers before an election.
- the joy of a political prisoner returning home.
- unlikely people praying in unlikely places.

1- President Trump has called out Democrats who have cheating on their minds. He promises to hold the cheaters accountable. Read the entire article at the link for more details.

The Conservative Treehouse

“Cease and Desist” – President Trump Accurately Identifies the Institution at the Epicenter of Government Controlled Voter Fraud

QUOTE: President Trump sends out a “cease and desist” message that absolutely nails the institutional origin of the voter fraud process as it is permitted and facilitated. Although slightly using a coded message, within the spelling, punctuation and pertinence, the identification “DoJ” is transparently clear. I hope everyone can see it.

Donald J. Trump ✓
@realDonaldTrump

CEASE & DESIST: I, together with many Attorneys and Legal Scholars, am watching the Sanctity of the 2024 Presidential Election very closely because I know, better than most, the rampant Cheating and Skullduggery that has taken place by the Democrats in the 2020 Presidential Election. It was a Disgrace to our Nation! Therefore, the 2024 Election, where Votes have just started being cast, will be under the closest professional scrutiny and, WHEN I WIN, those people that CHEATED will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the Law, which will include long term prison sentences so that this Depravity of Justice does not happen again. We cannot let our Country further devolve into a Third World Nation, AND WE WON'T! Please beware that this legal exposure extends to Lawyers, Political Operatives, Donors, Illegal Voters, & Corrupt Election Officials. Those involved in unscrupulous behavior will be sought out, caught, and prosecuted at levels, unfortunately, never seen before in our Country.

9.44k ReTruths 24.3k Likes

Sep 07, 2024, 7:01 PM

The identification of the DoJ as the primary institutional silo that permits voter fraud is keenly accurate. That same institutional silo has the capability to stop voter fraud by prosecuting all of the public-private officials and NGO's who participate in the process.

Main justice facilitates voter fraud through a subsidiary of secondary divisions (sub-silos) within the main institution. The Civil Rights Division of the DOJ is a critically compromised agency and must be addressed accordingly in order to confront the weaponized bureaucracy underneath the leadership level.

This is why the Attorney General position is so critical in 2025. As an institution, Main Justice is now almost exclusively a Lawfare targeting mechanism. The Dept of Justice unilaterally focuses all criminal investigative resources against the political enemies of the Administrative State.

Within the DOJ there are several divisions that must be addressed simultaneously if any effort to take it down to brass tacks is going to succeed. This cannot be a delicate surgical approach, the effort to remove the corrupt lesion will need chainsaws not scalpels. The fine surgical details and cleaning will be for the next administration in 2028.

The interior silos each have an important role, and they include: (1) the DOJ-National Security Division (DOJ-NSD), (2) the DOJ Civil Rights Division, (3) the DOJ-Community Relations Service (DOJ-CRS), and (4) the DOJ Inspector General's Office. These are the four key agencies within the larger Main Justice system that must be addressed from DC.

Of those FOUR AGENCIES, the single most important one is the DOJ-National Security Division (DOJ-NSD). This is the interior silo that was corrupted from its origin and remained intentionally without Inspector General oversight until 2017.

When we think of the common Lawfare targeting the enemies of the Deep State like Donald Trump, that's the core purpose of the DOJ-NSD.

The DOJ-NSD hides behind the justification of "national security" to cloud their activity. In many ways the DOJ-NSD and the CIA have the same cover story that allows them virtually omnipotent power.

The President has previously been hamstrung by the claimed importance and power of agencies under the guise of national security. The Legislative Branch created the beast then covered away from oversight. The worst outcome stemmed from the Judicial Branch who historically deferred to the national security apparatus.

The DOJ-NSD knows how to use "national security" as a sword and a shield. This is essentially the issue now created by the DOJ-NSD targeting President Trump. With the Legislative Branch compromised by their own creation, and with the Judicial Branch stuck inside an old paradigm of “national security” you can see how confronting the DOJ-NSD can only come from one place, THE OVAL OFFICE.

The President of the United States, hopefully Donald J Trump, is going to have to do what the other branches have failed to do, take apart the DOJ-NSD and remove all the functions of Main Justice to their pre-Patriot Act status. This is not going to be easy and will take a very specific type of person as U.S. Attorney General who both understands the issue and can, more importantly, articulate the problem to the larger American public.

We need more, but these are the most critical positions to cover – AND REMEMBER, not a single person who has ever worked in Main Justice should ever be considered a candidate for any leadership position in 2025. If they worked in the corrupt DOJ system, they are corrupt – I do not care what capacity they worked in it before.

2- There is literally no end to the methods the left has dreamed up to cheat. It is always good to see state officials watching out and acting on attempts like this.

American Action News

Texas AG Sues Second County Using Taxpayer Funds To Pay Voter Registration Firm Run By Progressive Activist

QUOTE: Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton filed a lawsuit Friday to stop a county from using taxpayer dollars to pay a voter registration firm aligned with progressives to identify unregistered voters.

Travis County is allegedly illegally paying taxpayer dollars to Civic Government Solutions (CGS), a voter registration firm, to create a list of unregistered voters for the county, according to the lawsuit. Travis County, home of Austin, Texas, is solidly blue, and CGS CEO Jeremy Smith has made statements in the past that encourage people to vote for progressive candidates.

“Travis County has blatantly violated Texas law by paying partisan actors to conduct unlawful identification efforts to track down people who are not registered to vote,” Paxton said in a press release. “Programs like this invite fraud and reduce public trust in our elections. We will stop them and any other county considering such programs.”

The Travis County Commissioners Court approved the use of the firm on Aug. 27, with the contract extending to 2025, according to county documents. CGS has sent over 10 million mailers since 2018 and has registered 2 million voters, according to the lawsuit.

Smith is also the CEO of Civitech, which describes itself as a “progressive data startup,” according to Axios. Civitech is listed as a registered contractor of CGS, with their goal being to “drive support for progressive causes and candidates” and to register “likely Democratic voters across the nation could be the key to securing Democratic victory in 2024,” according to the lawsuit.

Paxton filed a lawsuit on Wednesday against Bexar County for allegedly sending out massive amounts of registration applications regardless of whether they were requested via a third-party vendor. Paxton warned that the program would potentially allow illegal immigrants to vote and “invites election fraud.”

Republican Texas Gov. Greg Abbott announced Tuesday that the state found and purged more than 6,500 noncitizens from state voter rolls, with 1.1 million total names removed from the rolls, including dead people, those who have moved out of Texas and people on the suspense list.

3- We all supported the Cheneys and the Bushes. That is why this betrayal hurts. It is also why hearing Rep. Byron Donalds stand for conservatism is heartening, especially since Dick Cheney and his despicable daughter won't do it.

Matt Margolis at PJ Media

Byron Donalds Destroys Dick Cheney Over Kamala Endorsement

QUOTE: If you're familiar with my background with blogging, you know that twenty years ago, I ran a blog called Blogs For Bush to support the Bush-Cheney ticket. I wouldn't be here at PJ Media today had it not been for that experience. So, it was particularly crushing to learn that former Vice President Dick Cheney has endorsed Kamala Harris.

During an appearance on CNN, Rep. Byron Donalds (R-Fla.) absolutely destroyed Dick Cheney for endorsing Kamala Harris.

"My first response is I really don't care what he thinks," he said after being read Cheney's statement on air. "Secondarily, if you look at the way Kamala Harris and Joe Biden have led the current administration, they suppressed the free speech of the American people. It was the Biden campaign that lied to the world during the last presidential election using the intelligence agencies and 51 intelligence officers to lie about the laptop from hell—that's something the Biden campaign did—They lied about ... all the impacts using the COVID-19 vaccine. They tried to use OSHA to mandate 80,000,000 Americans getting that vaccine. They fired over 10,000 soldiers from our military over the same situation. And right now, we have a situation where Kamala Harris has lied to the world about the health and mental capabilities of Joe Biden."

"So you put all that together, and then you have this statement from Dick Cheney. I'm gonna look at what's actually been happening with Kamala Harris and Joe Biden, and the threat they are to democracy, not what Dick Cheney's saying."

I may not be happy that Dick Cheney is abandoning his principles to vote for Kamala Harris, but I'm loving how Rep. Donalds destroyed him on CNN. Frankly, if Dick Cheney is willing to support Kamala Harris, he deserves it.

4- You may have missed this news over the weekend.

Another undercover operation has caught a DOJ spokesman telling the truth about the New York persecution of Donald Trump. Of course, we have all known this. The news is that someone inside the Swamp admitted it out loud and it was caught on videotape.

American Greatness

Spokesman For Manhattan US Attorney's Office Caught on Tape Ripping DA Bragg Over Trump Prosecution; Calls Case 'Nonsense'

QUOTE: The top Department of Justice spokesman for the Southern District of New York was caught on a hidden camera lambasting Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg's prosecution of former President Donald Trump, calling the case "nonsense" and accusing Democrats of being "out to get" the Republican presidential nominee.

Nicholas Biase, chief spokesman for the Manhattan US Attorney's Office, was secretly recorded in July and August dishing about Bragg and his "hush-money" case against Trump by an undercover journalist for conservative commentator Steven Crowder's "Mug Club."

Crowder released the shocking footage on Thursday, saying at the onset that Biase was "not the bad guy here," but an "unwitting whistleblower."

"Honestly, I think the case is nonsense," Biase said on July 31 to the unidentified female journalist during what appeared to be a date at a crowded bar.

The DOJ spokesman also said he believed the unprecedented prosecution was designed to help Bragg further his own political ambitions.

"He wants to be, something ... a mayor? I'm not sure what he wants to be, but I know he's not happy just being the DA of New York County. Before he decided to prosecute Trump, did you know who he was? You do now," he told the woman in the recording.

Biase accused Bragg of "stacking charges [against Trump] and, like, rearranging things just to make it fit a case"—an opinion widely held by legal experts.

The former president was set to be sentenced on Sept. 18. but Manhattan Supreme Court Judge Juan Merchan on Friday blinked and rescheduled his sentencing to Nov 26, weeks after the election.

Biase also weighed in on Fulton County District Attorney Fani Willis' prosecution of Trump in Georgia, calling it a "travesty of justice."

Trump and 18 co-defendants were indicted in August 2023 on charges related to his efforts to expose the 2020 election fraud in Georgia, and reverse the result. "To put it mildly, it's a mockery of justice. She is a joke ... The whole thing is disgusting. They're just out to get him [Trump]," Biase said of Willis.

The spokesman has since apologized for the remarks, telling The New York Post on Thursday he "should have known better."

5- This is how the Democrats lie about crime just before an election.

NYPost

Face it progressives: NYC crime is down because police enforcement is up

QUOTE: Haven't you heard?! Crime is down.

In the lead up to election day in November, this refrain has become a favorite of Democrats who'd like you to forget their flirtations with — and, in many cases, explicit support for — defunding the police.

The headlines speak volumes:

"A Drop in Crime Rates? Thanks, Biden!" — Bloomberg

"New data show homicides down in Biden's last year vs. Trump's" — Axios

"The crime wave is over, but Republicans can't let go" — Vox

And New York City is often Exhibit A in this duplicitous messaging campaign. Through mid-August of this year, murders and shootings in Gotham are each down 10% compared to the same period in 2023. And in 2023, those numbers were also lower than they were in 2022.

But something's fishy here.

They don't say it, but the reason progressives are championing recent declines in offenses like homicides and gun assaults these days is to undermine voters' (accurate) sense that the left's criminal justice approach actually contributed to the upticks in violent crime in the first place.

For starters, crime is not down in all offense categories; some are down and others are up.

There have also been declines in population, subway ridership, and in-office work rates — all of which translate to New Yorkers spending far less time on the street than they used to. This, in turn, presents fewer opportunities for criminals, and thus lower offense numbers.

When highlighting that some crime measures are down, progressives make an even more problematic omission: Enforcement is also up. Imagine that! The leftists who've championed depolicing and decarceration now highlight recent crime declines for one reason, and one reason only: to discredit any criticism of their public-safety records.

What's happening with New York City crime is no accident. Professional police critics would have you believe that elevated crime levels over the last few years were unrelated to their efforts to curb enforcement. But the available data lend support to a far more plausible (and contrary) insight: enforcement matters.

Yet, many progressives still can't bring themselves to applaud the enforcement efforts that have likely brought about the modest safety gains they're so aggressively latching onto. Doing so, after all, would ease the concerns of those still worried about whether their next subway ride will be peaceful.

The truth is that things could and should be a lot safer. The only things in the way of that safety are New York's (the city and state's) criminal justice policies and the unwillingness of "progressive" pols to rework them.

6- The nightmare of imprisonment by the government is over for one January 6 prisoner. He is home with his family at last. For more information on Will Watson hit the link.

The Gateway Pundit

J6 Political Prisoner Will Watson is Finally Home and With the Daughter He Had Never Held

QUOTE: Stepping out of prison, after being politically persecuted and held hostage by your government, should be the best feeling in the world.

Will Watson was able to feel that recently (August 23, 2024), and although it was amazing, the best feeling he had that day was holding his baby girl for the first time. He has been released after three and a half years and is ready to restart his life with his beautiful daughter.

While everyone likely remembers where they were on January 6, 2021, we also remember the footage that the Mainstream Media fed us throughout the day and night. The next day on the front of every newspaper, every news outlet, Twitter, Facebook, etc... were pictures of the "insurrectionists." Reports filled our brains with visuals of the DEPLORABLES who participated in trying to take down our "Democracy."

Will Watson was one of those whose picture everyone would become familiar with. However, not everyone is familiar with his story. Watson was most notably seen inside the Capitol next to MAGA/QAnon Shaman, Jacob Chansley, and the Capitol Police.

Watson got on the megaphone (while standing in front of the police) and told the crowd that the police were willing to work with them and would allow them to have their voices heard if they stayed peaceful. You might recall that video footage as it has been played on many platforms for the last three and a half years.

Now that you remember who Will was on January 6th let's see who Will is.

Will is a 25-year-old father from Alabama. He was a chef at three of the highest-rated restaurants in Montgomery and Auburn, AL. His daughter was born 12 weeks (about 3 months) premature just before he was taken to prison over three years ago, and since she was in the NICU, he had never held his baby girl until his release.

Although she had several medical procedures and issues that Will was unable to be there for, she is currently healthy and looks more like her daddy every day.

7- Sometimes we see something happen and can't believe that it is real.

Tucker Carlson has embarked on a road show across the country. He invites different people to join him at each show. So far there have been 3 or 4 shows, all at sold out venues. At the end of the first show with newly converted and baptized Russell Brand, Tucker asked him to pray. It was an astounding moment. Watch at the link below.

Christian Post

Russell Brand kneels in prayer at Tucker Carlson event, prays against 'dark and demonic forces'

QUOTE: A barefoot Russell Brand knelt on the floor at the conclusion of an hour-long conversation with former Fox News host Tucker Carlson in Phoenix, Arizona, on Wednesday, and prayed against the "dark and demonic forces" in government and corporate America.

The British actor also asked that the upcoming 2024 presidential election would provide an opportunity for "unity" in the United States.

Kicking off the first of Carlson's multi-stop live national tour this month that will feature various guests ranging from Donald Trump Jr. to Roseanne Barr, Carlson spoke at length to Brand about the comedian's newfound Christian faith and how it has affected his worldview.

As the two wrapped up their conversation, Carlson asked if Brand would be willing to close them in prayer, to which he enthusiastically obliged.

<https://x.com/TCNetwork/status/1832095048785334355>

PRAY for divine intervention in all matters.

PRAY for warriors and those persecuted by the left.

PRAY for the safety, health and happiness of all children.

SHARE the truth. It is our best weapon against evil.

Hold Fast,

Defending The Republic

Read the five part series truthfully explaining the unprecedented lawfare used by the left to remove Sidney Powell's right to free speech.

This will be permanently available for all at Defending The Republic.
